I discovered it a few years ago with my partner Sam as we were stumbling through the West Village one hot, muggy July morning. We shared strong coffee, soft scrambled eggs and little currant scones, lingering for what must have been at least two hours, maybe three. So when the cookbook came out a few months ago, I couldn't wait to get an inside glimpse into some of the recipes we've tried and love. Buvette: The Pleasure of Good Food: Amazon.de: Jody ... Wonderful!! My new favorite cookbook. I like her wine bar in the Village and we just found Buvette this spring (not paying attention I guess...). We try to go every couple of weeks; if we lived in Village stead of UWS she'd be driving a Tesla because we would be there every other day.
